

200 West Street

slated July 12th

It's party time again for residents of 200 West from 200 to 400 South. This tradition began 32 years ago in 1943. It celebrated the oiling of the Street from curb to curb (ending the Pioneer Era) hence has always been called "The Street Party".

It is not only a time for a bounteous meal, but an occasion to review the activities and accomplishments of all who live on the "Street". The many community and church contributions and special honors and achievements are recognized. Weddings, graduations, missions, travels and births etc. are all noted.

Following dinner there is always a variety show with singing, dancing, skits, a melodrama, sometimes even a band all by the talented people who live on the "Street".

Often the party has a special theme: so there has been a wild west party, a political rally, a Samoan Fia-Fia, a Shakespearean Festival to mention but a few.

This year the party will be held at the home of Fern and Farroll Erickson on July 12. Special guests will be Lucy and Lanell Lunt, long time "Street" dwellers who have recently moved. The committee for this year's party is Fern and Farroll Erickson, Trudy and Willard Jones, Paul and Dianne Graff.
