Daughters Of Utah Pioneers No 122 Erected Sept. 1948

Pioneer Rock Church. This Church built of sandstone brought from Parowan Canyon. Stated in 1863 and completed about 1867, was the religious center of Parowan Valley. The large amusement hall in the basement was for school and dances. A stage was erected in the south end where pioneer dramatic association presented plays. In 1918 Church activities ceased. By 1926 it had deteriorated. The Daughters of the Utah Pioneers asked permission to recondition the building for Memorial Hall which was granted. Iron County Company.
